To enhance these efforts, in April 2017 the Governor signed the unprecedented $2.5 billion Clean Water Infrastructure Act of 2017. The Act will provide direct support to help communities to upgrade aging drinking water and wastewater infrastructure and protect drinking water sources by conserving open space and addressing contaminants, prioritizing regional collaboration at the watershed scale and creating thousands of jobs in the process. ~~This will include funding~~ to upgrade drinking water infrastructure with modern filtration systems and connect contaminated private drinking water wells to regulated public systems, as well as additional support for the State Superfund program. In addition, the Clean Water Infrastructure Act of 2017 has directed DEC, in consultation with DOH, to build a comprehensive database, evaluate and prioritize over 1750 inactive solid waste sites statewide to determine any potential impacts from PFAS and/or other contaminants of concern on drinking water sources resulting from any of these sites and to provide recommendations for remediation and mitigation measures for the sites impacting drinking water sources. As a part of this process, the Departments are conducting drinking water sampling in areas where groundwater may have been impacted to verify drinking water quality and to identify appropriate next steps.

Emergency Rule and Final Rule

In January 2016, New York became the first state in the nation to regulate PFOA as a hazardous substance followed by the regulation of PFOS in April 2016. The regulation requires the proper storage of the substances and limited releases to the environment, and enabled the state to use its legal authority and resources of the State Superfund program to advance investigations and cleanups of impacted sites.
The Final Rule for PFOA and PFOS became effective on March 3, 2017. By finalizing the regulations.

And they sang a new song with these words: "You are worthy to take the scroll and break its seals and open it. For you were slaughtered, and your blood has ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. And you have caused them to become a Kingdom of priests for our God.
